CIVIL AIR PATROLNATIONAL HEADQUARTERS
WASHINGTON, JANUARY 13, 1942

Subject: Training Directive No. 1 - Military Courtesy and Discipline

To: All Wing Commanders

1. Enclosed for your information and guidance is a copy of Training Directive No. 1 covering the course of instruction on military courtesy and discipline. A sizable supply of this Directive is being forwarded to you under separate cover. Additional copies will be available upon request as needed in order to provide five copies for the headquarters of each unit of the Patrol.

2. We are also sending you an initial consignment of copies of the text book for this course of instruction (War Department Basic Field Manual, Military Courtesy and Discipline, FM 21-50). Additional copies of this manual will be supplied as needed within the distribution limit prescribed in paragraph 3 of the Directive, namely, one copy for each five members of the Patrol. This is the same ratio of distribution as is used by the Army in supplying copies of this manual to its units and represents the maximum number of copies we shall be able to obtain.

3. Wing Commanders are hereby requested to enlist the co-operation of all unit commanders, training and operations officers and instructors in seeing that proper care is exercised in the distribution and use of all training manuals to the end that waste may be avoided and full service obtained from the allotted supply.
